CALL FOR PAPERS

The Society for the Advancement of Philosophy (www.upf.hr) and the Center for Croatian Studies of the University of Zagreb (<http://www.hrstud.unizg.hr/philosophy>) are organizing the ZAGREB APPLIED ETHICS CONFERENCE 2015 (ZAEC 2015). The aim of the conference is to gather philosophers and scholars from other disciplines primarily, but not exclusively, from Central and Southeastern Europe who will present papers on various topics in contemporary applied ethics, ranging from particular case studies to more general (foundational and methodological) considerations. In keeping with the intention to promote rational and critical approach to, and public understanding of, the work in applied ethics, we encourage clearly structured submissions adhering to the principles of conceptual rigor, soundness of argumentation and scientific accuracy. The plenary lectures at the conference will be given by Emeritus Professor DAVID HEYD (Hebrew University of Jerusalem & Tel Aviv University – Edmond J. Safra Center for Ethics) and Professor ERIC T. OLSON (University of Sheffield – Department of Philosophy).

We invite you to participate in the conference with a paper presentation no longer than 20 minutes (each presentation will be followed by 10 minutes discussion). If you wish to present a paper in the conference, please fill in the attached Application Form and send it to upf@hrstud.hr no later than 1 April 2015. Notification of acceptance will be sent to authors by 15 April 2015.

The conference will take place at the Center for Croatian Studies of the University of Zagreb, located in the Borongaj Campus (www.borongaj.unizg.hr). The organizers are unable to cover for the expenses of travel and accommodation (for useful info on accommodation in Zagreb see www.zagreb-touristinfo.hr). Lunch will be provided free of charge to all participants each day of the conference. No registration fee will be charged. The official language of the conference is English.

We are looking forward to your applications!
